DOL

Brand new adult shorts suitable for all platforms: TV, Online and Mobile!

"DOL", a hilarious spoof on soap and glam dramas, is a truly unique series of shorts. When the Dol family wins 860 million euros in a lottery, they decide to use it for the pursuit of happiness, love and personal fulfillment... because plastic surgery is not an option.

As it turns out, personal fulfillment for Latoya Dol-Smith means saving the world from poverty. She also wants peace to reign on earth, although she secretly wants to be famous. Janet Jackson, Oprah and Bob Geldof all join the quest to better the world, with mixed results. Being charitable turns out to be quite difficult.

Latoya's sudden wealth also has its dangers. Her psychiatrist has already shifted his focus from her mind to her money, which he'll do anything to get his hands on.

Meanwhile, her husband John Dol uses his cash to indulge in his greatest passion: illegal street racing. After the initial adrenaline rush loses its macho appeal, he begins hot air ballooning - with the help of the gardener Brady, who is secretly in love with him.

Now that their family is financially secure, Mimi and Bibi are sure they'll get the love and attention from their parents that they crave for. Unfortunately, their parents are now way too preoccupied with fulfilling their very own personal dreams. So the twins have to take matters into their own hands. And Grandma? Her thing for Tom Cruise takes on surprising and heavenly proportions...

For such an action-packed series that centers on a crazy family of dolls, it's amazing how their lives run a close parallel to our own...
