Kill your Darling

Kill your Darling

"Kill your Darling" is the one-of-a-kind multimedia project that combines mobile, Internet, Free TV and viewer participation!

After partying in the club "Kill your Darling", Tim's friends fall into the hands of the merciless serial killer known as the "Face Slasher". In desperation, they film their escape attempts with their cell phones and a mysterious friend uploads the files. This is module 1, in which the viewers receive the same information as Tim: 30 short 3-minute clips either via cell phone or online download.

In module 2, Tim asks the viewers to help him find his friends through various online platforms - this is the "Kill your Darling" virtual world in which users can actively participate. Suddenly, Tim vanishes - a clue delivered by the viewers has led him to the entrance of the killer's hideout where his friends are being held captive.

Module 3, the movie, broadcasts: the police has arrested Tim. Years ago, Tim had lost his memory after a car accident and now that his friends have disappeared without a trace, Investigator Meisner believes that he is a psychopathic copycat of the "Face Slasher".

Escaping from the psychiatric ward where he is confined, Tim is driven to prove his innocence and find the real killer before his friends become the next victims. Along the way, Tim's desperate hunt also leads him on a deep search into his own soul...

Chased by the police and aided by his alleged mentor Legrand, a collector of serial killer souvenirs, Tim discovers a horrible and difficult to imagine truth that puts an entirely new face on life and death...
