Comedy Street

Comedy Street

Now starting its 5th season on ProSieben!

Welcome to Candid Camera, "Jackass" and "Trigger Happy TV" style, from ProSieben!

"He's nuts!" - at least that's the pedestrian's first impression when he sees an enraged policeman demolishing a falsely parked car. Not only is he about to discover that the madman cop is a comedian, but also that he himself is appearing on "Comedy Street"!

The show moves from one hilarious candid-camera clip to the next, each one showing an unusually weird situation. Our comedian might turn up in the guise of a greasy gangster, a wheelchair-bound invalid, an arrogant smart-ass or as "Mr. Dick".

Whatever role he's playing, it's the unsuspecting "audience" that's taken in as our comedian repeatedly leaves them standing there with their mouths hanging open, completely thunderstruck by his crazy costumes, characters and actions. In its 5th season on ProSieben, "Comedy Street" has continuously maintained a viewership above the channel's average.

"Comedy Street" can be adapted to any and all of your programming needs, being suitable for the cell phone, internet, in-flight or standard broadcasting markets. The non-verbal clips are easy to select and available to use as a stand-alone format or as fillers. "Comedy Street" can be packaged in any fashion appropriate for your audience and scheduling.

"Comedy Street" - It's Bad to the Bone!
