Undiscovered America

It's about the America you will never otherwise see...

From New York taxi drivers to the country's most breathtaking landscapes, from cowboys out west to its incredibly vibrant cities and charming rural communities - experience the wonderful diversity that is America... the real America. Each episode focuses on a particular region or state, its highlights and its residents, a colorful spectrum of unusual stories from an American's point of view. UFO researchers, lobster fishermen, Native Indians, weapon fanatics, policemen - these are only a few of the curious and interesting characters you will meet.

This weekly travel magazine, with its amazing photography, some of which is 3D, journeys far beyond where other travel shows have ventured. Unbelievable stories are just a small taste of what you will encounter on this unparalleled and unique road trip, from coast to coast, through the real and undiscovered America.

Just sit back and enjoy the ride...
